After a successful login, you will see the content list of the EFRA 2008 handbook. Basically, all changes should be stored from now on, so the handbook has the actual content at any time.

The content list starts with the Constitution and ends with appendix 9. An additional database manual helps you how to fill in the data.

CONSTITUTION OF THE EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF RADIO OPERATED MODEL AUTOMOBILES EFRA

2. Objectives	2008-06-14
The objectives of the Federation are:
2.1. Promotion	2008-06-14
The promotion of international Friendship and Co-operation, particularly (but not exclusively) on the continent of Europe, through and for the construction, competition and sport of radio-operated model automobiles.
2.2. Establishment	2008-06-14
The establishment of uniform International rules and regulations for such construction and operation.
2.3. Co-ordination	2008-06-14
The co-ordination of races and competitions, national and international and the keeping of records thereof and the distribution of information relating thereto.
2.4. Representation	2008-06-14
The representation of its member countries in the world federation IFMAR(International Federation of Model Auto Racing) which coordinates model car racing in the world and organises World Championship races. EFRA is recognised by IFMAR as its representative for Europe and it's affiliate members. EFRA in turn recognises and supports the authority of IFMAR in all matters relating to the worldwide organisation of model car racing.

The screenshot shows the EFRA website interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the EFRA logo and the text "EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF RADIO-OPERATED MODEL AUTOMOBILES". Below the header, there is a navigation bar with "Rules Content List" and "Overview - Home". A central navigation area contains several buttons: "My Proposals View/Edit", "New proposals Approve proposals", "Print Regulation Print PDF", and "Select a rule Add a proposal View proposals". A yellow message box in the center states: "The proposal has successfully been sent." Below this, the title "CONSTITUTION OF THE EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF RADIO OPERATED MODEL AUTOMOBILES EFRA" is displayed. A table lists various rules with expandable sections and a "Proposal (1)" link next to the "3. Membership" rule.
