EFRA GP SERIES 2018 report (2018 EGPSR)

Dear sport friends,

2nd season of EFRA GP series 2018 finished. It has been a satisfaction to see how the season increased in number of drivers, with a lot of new national drivers introducing them in international events. We are working in news for 2019 and also we have to work in some points that we have to improve but, in general, balance has been positive. Our goals, when we started with EFRA GP series was as follow:

1. Make a race with aim to try get close from new drivers who they didn't get contact with EFRA races before.
2. Make a race interesting for top level drivers.
3. Make a race with friendly atmosphere but keeping EFRA standards.

Step by step, we are reaching our goals and we are proud and happy to show you these figures:

- 39 total drivers participating in 1/10th IC 200mm
- 114 total drivers participating in 1/8th IC
- 188 total entries in combined races in EFRA GP SERIES
- 15 countries represented

Behalf of EFRA, I would like to thanks to all drivers to participate in our series and I hope that next year we can share more time with amazing races, nice venues and great atmosphere on the track like this year.

Congratulations to SIMON KURZBUCH for his EFRA GP SERIES title in 1/8th IC and congratulations to KYLE BRANSON for his EFRA GP SERIES title in 1/10th 200mm.

In following link, you can find results from all rounds of the EFRA GP SERIES:

Finally, attached you can find EFRA GP SERIES Final Ranking list in 1/8th IC and 1/10th IC 200mm with drivers who are directly classified in EURO A for 1/8th in Cassino (Italy)

Now, biggest and most important races in EFRA are coming. EFRA European Championship 1/8th in Cassino (Italy) and EFRA European Championship 1/10th IC in Vilareal (Portugal) will provide us a great spectacle on the track. Have a great summer.

Javier Garcia
